3. On-Going CSR Project:

“Ongoing Project” means a project which is a multi-year project undertaken by the Company in fulfilment of its CSR obligation, having estimated timeline of more than one year but not exceeding 3 (three) years excluding the financial year in which it was commenced, and shall include a project that was initially not approved as a multi-year project, but whose duration has been extended beyond 1 (one) year and approved by the Board of Directors of the Company based on reasonable justification.

4. Criteria for selection of CSR Project:

The Company shall support projects that its CSR Committee considers deserving, based on the following broad factors:

- The project is covered within the suggested areas in the Act or rules made thereunder or such other areas as identified by the Committee as it may deem appropriate considering the need;
- is capable of creating long term impact; and
- any other project as may be deemed appropriate by the CSR Committee.

5. CSR Committee and its Composition:

The CSR Committee constituted by the Board of Directors, shall consist minimum of three (3) Directors.

The CSR Committee shall always have at least one (1) Independent Director. An outgoing member of the CSR Committee may be replaced by any other member of the Board.

6. CSR Committee meetings:

The CSR Committee shall meet as often as its members deem necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities but not less than twice in a year. Due to any unforeseen events, if it's not feasible to hold at least two meetings, then at least one meeting shall be held during the year.

7. Existing Charitable Trust(s)/Implementing Agency(ies) within JM Financial group:

Over last three decades, JM Financial Group has been engaged in community outreach activities through following two charitable trusts viz. JM Financial Foundation and Kampani Charitable Trust.

JM FINANCIAL FOUNDATION

JM Financial Foundation, established in the year 2001 began its activities with support to the victims of the massive earthquake that hit the Kutch region in the state of Gujarat. Its objectives cover a wide area of activities and causes. In last several years, JM Financial Foundation has supported various institutions and NGOs on a number of outreach programs in several fields ranging from education, health, support to poor, animal welfare to disaster relief.

KAMPANI CHARITABLE TRUST (KCT)

KCT was established in the year 1984 for advancement and propagation of education, medical help to the poor and any other objects which are charitable and of general public utility like maintenance of gardens, care, upkeep and food for animals and birds.

The Trust has been achieving the aforesaid objects by contributing directly to needy persons as well as supporting the activities undertaken by various institutions.

8. Formulation of Annual Action Plan:

Every year, the CSR Committee shall recommend to the Board of Directors of the Company for its approval, an Annual Action Plan to, inter-alia, include the following:

- list of CSR projects or programmes to be undertaken in areas or subjectsspecified in Schedule VII to the Act;
- manner of execution of such projects or programmes;
- direction for utilisation of funds and implementation schedule for the projects or programmes;
- monitoring and reporting mechanism for the projects or programmes; and
- details of Need and Impact Assessment, if any, for the projects undertaken by the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company may alter such plan at any time during any financial year, based on the recommendation of the CSR Committee.

9. Annual Allocation for CSR Activities:

The CSR Committee will recommend the Board of Directors the amount of expenditure to be incurred by the Company on the CSR activities. The basis for such recommendation will be the profits of the Company and the percentage prescribed under the Act.

If for reasons explained to and noted by the CSR Committee, the funds allocated for spending as per the Annual Action Plan remain unspent, the fact and reasons for the gap in spending will be included in the report of the Board of Directors for the concerned financial year. The Company will also ensure that the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules are followed in respect of use/transfer to specified account/s of such unspent funds.

The Company may undertake the CSR activities either directly or participate through its implementing agency, viz., JM Financial Foundation, over which the Company will have complete oversight. Profile describing the activities of the Foundation is attached as Annexure 1 to this policy document.

The surplus arising out of the CSR projects or programs or activities shall not form part of the business profits of the Company and shall be spent/transferred in the manner prescribed under the applicable provisions of the Act and the Rules.

10. Manner of execution:

The Company shall, in terms of the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules, either spend the funds directly on the projects approved by the CSR Committee of the Board of Directors or through its implementing agency(ies) viz., Foundation(s) /Trust(s) by contributing the CSR funds to such agencies towards CSR expenditure and/or by way of contribution as corpus donation to such agencies and fulfilling the regulatory criteria like having a unique CSR Registration number and registered under Sections 12A and 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

The Company can also engage domestic or/and international organisations for designing, monitoring and evaluation of the CSR projects or programmes as per this policy as well as for capacity building of personnel for CSR, in case the same is recommended by the CSR Committee of the Board.

The Company may, if so recommended by the CSR Committee of the Board, spend CSR amount for creation or acquisition of a capital asset, to be held by –

11. Modalities of Execution/Implementation process for CSR activities:

The CSR Committee shall review the proposals presented by the CSR team and the Management team for the projects to be supported, detailed plans of such projects, modalities of execution, implementation schedule, monitoring process and amount to be allocated to each project.

CSR Committee will satisfy itself about the projects, its efficacy, implementation schedule, project timeline, budget etc., as well as ensuring that the projects fall within the areas mentioned in the Act / Rules. Based on its deliberations, the Committee will recommend to the Board of Directors, the projects and the amount to be allocated for the same.

The Committee shall give its recommendation and approval in compliance of this Policy.

The Company may make contributions to the selected Projects directly or through JM Financial Foundation as recommended by CSR Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

The Company may also collaborate with other companies including JM Financial Group Companies for undertaking the CSR activities, subject to fulfillment of separate reporting requirements. Further, the Company may, if approved by the Board/CSR Committee, implement the CSR activities through implementing partners/executing agencies which may include a company established under section 8 of the Act, or a registered public trust or a registered society registered under Sections 12A and 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and having an established track record of at least 3 (three) years and registered as an implementing agency to carry out CSR activities.

The Company may also facilitate the voluntary involvement of its employees in CSR projects and development initiatives, offering an opportunity for them to contribute to meaningful causes, thereby facilitating their role as socially responsible citizens.

A certificate from the Chief Financial Officer certifying that the funds disbursed have been utilised for the purposes and in the manner as approved by the Board shall be placed before the Board of Directors every year.

12. Monitoring/Overseeing CSR activities/CSR projects:

The CSR Committee of the Board shall be responsible for monitoring the CSR Policy from time to time.

The CSR team and the management of the Company shall submit a report periodically, giving status of the approved Projects, amounts allocated, expenditure incurred and such other details as may be required by the CSR Committee/Board of Directors of the Company.

The CSR Committee shall meet as and when required to review the progress of various CSR projects in terms of both outcome assessment and financial monitoring.

13. Impact assessment, if required:

If the CSR obligation of the Company is Rs. 10 crore or more as calculated on the basis of an average profits of the 3 immediately preceding financial years, then, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Act and Rules made thereunder, the Company shall undertake impact assessment, through an independent agency, of its CSR projects having outlays of Rs. 1 crore or more, and which have been completed not less than 1 (one) year before undertaking the impact study. The impact assessment reports will be placed before the Board of Directors and will also be annexed to the annual report on CSR of the Company. Similarly, the projects can as far as possible be based on needs assessment undertaken during the designing stage.

The expenditure incurred in undertaking impact assessment is allowed to be booked towards CSR for the financial year for which the impact assessment is done, and shall not exceed 5% of the total CSR expenditure for that financial year or Rs. 50 Lakh, whichever is less.

14. Review/Amendment in policy:

Any amendment in this Policy may be carried out with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company, based on the recommendations of CSR Committee.

In case any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) and guideline(s) issued by applicable regulatory authority (ies), that is not consistent with the requirements specified under this Policy, then the provisions of such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) and the guideline(s) shall prevail upon the requirements hereunder and this Policy shall stand amended accordingly effective from the date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) and guideline(s).
